Joseph Julian Plaud, Ph.D., Presented with the Albert Nelson Marquis Lifetime Achievement Award by Marquis Who's Who

Dr. Plaud has been endorsed by Marquis Who's Who as a leader in psychology education

BOSTON, MA, March 5, 2018, Marquis Who's Who, the world's premier publisher of biographical profiles, is proud to present Joseph Julian Plaud, Ph.D., with the Albert Nelson Marquis Lifetime Achievement Award. An accomplished listee, Dr. Plaud celebrates many years' experience in his professional network, and has been noted for achievements, leadership qualities, and the credentials and successes he has accrued in his field. As in all Marquis Who's Who biographical volumes, individuals profiled are selected on the basis of current reference value. Factors such as position, noteworthy accomplishments, visibility, and prominence in a field are all taken into account during the selection process.

With over 25 years of industry experience to his credit, Dr. Plaud has worked as the executive director for Applied Behavioral Consultants, LLC, since 2001. Prior to this appointment, he served as the president of the Franklin D. Roosevelt American Heritage Center, Inc., from 2002 to 2008, director of research and webmaster for the Cambridge Center for Behavioral Studies from 1999 to 2003, and the assistant professor of psychology at the University of North Dakota from 1993 to 1997. In 1992, Dr. Plaud began his career as a psychology resident at the University of Mississippi Medical Center, a position he held until 1993.

Before embarking on his professional path, Dr. Plaud pursued an education at Clark University, earning a Bachelor of Arts, summa cum laude, in 1987. He concluded his studies in 1993, graduating from the University of Maine with a Doctor of Philosophy in psychology. Dr. Plaud went on to become licensed to practice clinical psychology in both Massachusetts and New York.

Beyond his efforts within the field, Dr. Plaud has contributed to numerous endeavors outside of his professional circles. He has held the role of consultant for the state of New Hampshire since 1999, as well as consultant for the Life Skills & Transition Center in Grafton, ND, since 1994. Likewise, he has been recognized as a forensic consultant since 1993, and a trustee with the Franklin D. Roosevelt Library & Museum since 2013. Dr. Plaud has also found success with his written work as well, including as editor-in-chief for the Journal of Behavioral Analysis and Therapy and the Journal of Sexual Offender Civil Commitment: Science and the Law, as author of "From Behavior Theory to Behavior Therapy" in 1997, and as a contributing author of articles to various esteemed journals.

In addition to his primary trade, Dr. Plaud remains affiliated with various organizations in relation to his areas of expertise. In 2002, he served as the Lieutenant Commander with the Medical Service Corps of the United States Naval Reserve. He also has maintained involvement with the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the Association for Advancement of Behavior Therapy and the American Psychological Society. Additionally, Dr. Plaud is an active member of the Phi Beta Kappa Society and Psi Chi, the International Honor Society in Psychology.

In light of his exceptional undertakings, Dr. Plaud has accrued several accolades and honors throughout his impressive career. He has been recognized as a fellow of the American Psychological Association and a clinical fellow of the Behavior Therapy and Research Society. He has also been a visiting scholar at Brown University.
